Way finding system

map of building complex

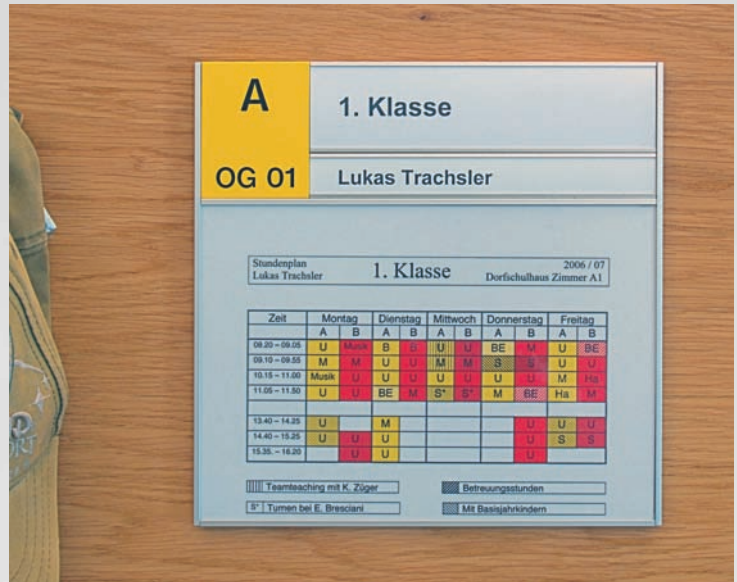

master directory

entrance

A wayfinding system needs to be easy understandable and should direct the shortest way.

- a master directory provides an overview of the building
- colours may indicate floors or buildings within the entire complex
- floor directories clarify and confirm the actual position of the visitor
- entrance signs in colours are obvious guide lines

window signs / time tables

pictograms

door sign

- easy changeable door signs with integrated self lettering in various DIN sizes
- system based lettering for standard rooms
- pictos for service rooms
